We could not leave the job undone.

Delta is following World Health Organization and Health Authorities directives due to the recent health emergency.

- We keep on the job and we never left our customers behind: food, pharmacy or health industry specially.

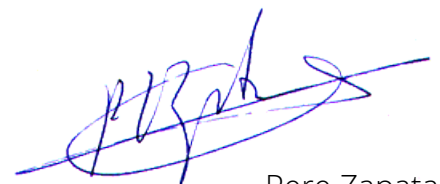

- We all adopted tele-work.

- Extreme health prevention measures and social distancing.

- Only works management have been affected by health authorities' decisions and pandemia evolution.

- We collaborate on prevention services and on our customer's company coordination activities, to unify our efforts in this exceptional situation with no "how-to" manuals or previous occasions where we could learn how to react.

Don't hesitate to contact us for any further information.
